

DEKALB COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY

Calendar of Events for Kids and Teens October 2020

Ongoing Programs

Teen Weekly Win

Complete a weekly challenge for a chance at winning a $25 gift card to Little Shop of Stories, redeemable in-store or online. Challenges include virtual escape rooms, teen book quizzes, and more!

Teen Weekly Win #3: Challenge runs from Monday, September 28 @10am EDT to Sunday, October 4, 2020 @10pm EDT. Link will go live at 10am Monday, September 28. Click here to participate: <https://forms.gle/XqX1Q5AdeVmNzAi6A>

Teen Weekly Win #4: Challenge runs from Monday, October 5 @10am EDT to Sunday, October 11, 2020 @10pm EDT. Link will go live at 10am Monday, October 5. Click here to participate: <https://forms.gle/2uqPugDopL8JJc2C8>

Teen Weekly Win #5: Challenge runs from Monday, October 12 @10am EDT to Sunday, October 18, 2020 @10pm EDT. Link will go live at 10am Monday, October 12. Click here to participate: <https://forms.gle/RqbfFnC15n8NDq8q6>

Teen Weekly Win #6: Challenge runs from Monday, October 19 @10am EDT to Sunday, October 25, 2020 @10pm EDT. Link will go live at 10am Monday, October 19. Click here to participate: <https://forms.gle/37hLvdLBiqUKADEp9>

Teen Weekly Win #7: Challenge runs from Monday, October 26 @10am EDT to Sunday, November 1, 2020 @10pm EDT. Link will go live at 10am Monday, October 26. Click here to participate: <https://forms.gle/oB2wTCwuUubWYzCf6>

Thursday, October 1, 2020

Cuéntame un Cuento

The link will be posted at 10:30 a.m. on the day of the program.

Watch an episode from September 17 here.

Una serie de lecturas en español para niños. (Para edades de 4 a 9 años.) El enlace se publicará a las 10:30 a.m. del día del programa. Tell me a story: A series of stories read aloud in Spanish for children ages 4 to 9 years.

Tell Your Story Through Character

4:00–5:00 p.m.

Registration required.

Ally Wright, Program Assistant at the Georgia Center for the Book, leads a presentation for tweens and teens on how to create real, living characters when writing stories, no matter the genre. Each presentation will end with a prompt to encourage putting these skills into practice.

Read more.

---

Friday, October 2, 2020

---

Preschool Storytime

10:30–11:00 a.m.

Registration required.

An energetic and interactive virtual storytime, complete with stories, songs, and more that are perfect for preschoolers. A link for the story time will be sent to registered participants 30 minutes before the story time starts. If you have any questions, or trouble accessing the link please contact the Decatur Library youth services department at (404) 370-3030 extension 2011.

AJC Decatur
Book Festival
presented by

Mid Grade Mythologies

7:00–8:00 p.m.

For more information and to register, click here.

Join Roshani Chokshi, Tehlor Kay Mejia, and J.C. Cervantes for a conversation about mythologies from around the world. Roshani Chokshi is the author of Aru

Shah and the Tree of Wishes, the third book in a series that focuses on the character of Aru Shah and the world of Indian mythology. Tehlor Kay Mejia's Paola Santiago and The River of Tears is a thrilling debut fantasy adventure based on the Mexican legend of La Llorona (the Crying Woman), and The Fire Keeper, by J.C. Cervantes, is the third installment of Cervantes' series The Shadow Crosser, based in Mayan folklore. These three bestselling authors get together to discuss cultural differences, mythological interpretations, and stories about ordinary kids stepping into their power.

---

Sunday, October 4, 2020

---

Virtual Tutoring with Mind Bubble

2:00–4:00 p.m.

To sign up for Mind Bubble's parent email list and receive the Zoom link for each virtual tutoring session in your inbox, visit <https://mindbubble.org/sign-up/>

Mind Bubble is excited to announce that their virtual tutoring sessions will resume in September, 2020! Sessions are held on Wednesday evenings and Sunday afternoons beginning September 16. Mind Bubble fosters a love of learning by connecting students with community members through free tutoring, workshops, and games. They strive to create a relaxed learning environment where many of life's most important lessons can be learned while having fun. DeKalb County Public Library will provide students in need a Chromebook laptop while supplies last. For more information, contact Gina Jenkins, DeKalb County Public Library, Youth Services Coordinator; 404.508.7190, ext. 2258.

---

Monday, October 5, 2020

---

Baby Time: Building Brains, Building Bonds

Mondays on Facebook

Watch an episode from September 28 here.

Songs, visuals, and movement activities designed to stimulate brain development and social bonding in the very young.

---

Tuesday, October 6, 2020

---

Baby Story Time

10:30–11:00 a.m.

Registration required.

A link for the story time will be sent to registered participants 30 minutes before the story time starts.

An interactive, virtual baby story time with nursery rhymes, songs, and books that target the developmental needs of infants and crawlers. If you have any questions, or trouble accessing the link please contact the Decatur Library youth services department at (404) 370-3030 extension 2011.

---

Wednesday, October 7, 2020

---

Toddler Storytime

10:30–11:00 a.m.

Registration required.

A link for the story time will be sent to registered participants 30 minutes before the story time starts.

A virtual, interactive storytime, complete with finger plays, action rhymes, stories, and more. This story time is specially targeted for the developmental needs of 2-year-olds. If you have any questions, or trouble accessing the link please contact the Decatur Library youth services department at (404) 370-3030 extension 2011.

Create a Photo Journal Part 1

4:00–5:00 p.m.

Registration required.

For ages 9 to 14. Create a photo journal through Google Applied Digital Skills classroom. This is a two-part series, so please register for both days, October 7 and October 8, 2020. Each participant will receive a pair of over-the-ear headphones to support digital skills activities. Participants also must have or create a gmail account.

Martial Art Fitness for All Ages

6:00–6:35 p.m.

Join using this link:

<https://qimethods.com/live-stream>

Fitness, Martial Arts and Tai Chi come together in Martial Art Fitness! Families can work together to improve their health, while cultivating discipline and listening skills. The Class is designed for all ages. No equipment is necessary, just an open space and open mind! Funding provided by the Friends of the Dunwoody Library.

Global Read Aloud Book Discussion

6:00–7:00 p.m.

Registration required.

Global Read Aloud-One Book to Connect the World Join DCPL staff virtually as we meet over 6 weeks to discuss Stamped: Racism, Antiracism, and You by Jason Reynolds and Dr. Ibram X. Kendi We will meet virtually every Wednesday at 6:00 e.t. to discuss a section of the book for 6 weeks. After registration, an email will be sent out with link to the meeting and reading schedule. First 15 people registered will get a free copy of Stamped!

Virtual Tutoring with Mind Bubble

6:15–8:15 p.m.

To sign up for Mind Bubble's parent email list and receive the Zoom link for each virtual tutoring session in your inbox, visit <https://mindbubble.org/sign-up/>

Mind Bubble is excited to announce that their virtual tutoring sessions will resume in September, 2020! Sessions are held on Wednesday evenings and Sunday afternoons beginning September 16. Mind Bubble fosters a love of learning by connecting students with community members through free tutoring, workshops, and games. They strive to create a relaxed learning environment where many of life's most important lessons can be learned while having fun. DeKalb County Public Library will provide students in need a Chromebook laptop while supplies last. For more information, contact Gina Jenkins, DeKalb County Public Library, Youth Services Coordinator; 404.508.7190, ext. 2258.

---

Thursday, October 8, 2020

---

Turn and Talk

Watch an episode from September 24 here.

Conversations, Books, and Building Brains — A story time for caregivers and their preschoolers.

Create a Photo Journal Part 2

4:00–5:00 p.m.

Registration required.

For Ages 9 to 14. Create a photo journal through Google Applied Digital Skills classroom. This is a two-part series, so please register for both days, October 7 and 8, 2020. Each participant will receive a pair of over-the-ear headphones to support digital skills activities. Participants also must have or create a gmail account.

---

Friday, October 9, 2020

---

Preschool Storytime

10:30–11:00 a.m.

Registration required.

An energetic and interactive virtual storytime, complete with stories, songs, and more that are perfect for preschoolers. A link for the story time will be sent to registered participants 30 minutes before the story time starts. If you have any questions, or trouble accessing the link please contact the Decatur Library youth services department at (404) 370-3030 extension 2011.

---

Sunday, October 11, 2020

---

Virtual Tutoring with Mind Bubble

2:00–4:00 p.m.

To sign up for Mind Bubble's parent email list and receive the Zoom link for each virtual tutoring session in your inbox, visit <https://mindbubble.org/sign-up/>

Mind Bubble is excited to announce that their virtual tutoring sessions will resume in September, 2020! Sessions are held on Wednesday evenings and Sunday afternoons beginning September 16. Mind Bubble fosters a love of learning by connecting students with community members through free tutoring, workshops, and games. They strive to create a relaxed learning environment where many of life's most important lessons can be learned while having fun. DeKalb County Public Library will provide students in need a Chromebook laptop while supplies last. For more information, contact Gina Jenkins, DeKalb County Public Library, Youth Services Coordinator; 404.508.7190, ext. 2258.

---

Monday, October 12, 2020

---

Baby Time: Building Brains, Building Bonds

Mondays on Facebook

Watch an episode from September 28 here.

Songs, visuals, and movement activities designed to stimulate brain development and social bonding in the very young.

---

Tuesday, October 13, 2020

---

Baby Story Time

10:30–11:00 a.m.

Registration required.

A link for the story time will be sent to registered participants 30 minutes before the story time starts.

An interactive, virtual baby story time with nursery rhymes, songs, and books that target the developmental needs of infants and crawlers. If you have any questions, or trouble accessing the link please contact the Decatur Library youth services department at (404) 370-3030 extension 2011.

3D Modeling and Design Club

5:00–6:00 p.m.

Registration required.

Want to create 3D art, game assets or participate in design challenges? Come learn about Blender, an open and 3D creation suite, or Tinkercad, an online 3D modeling program. You must sign up for a free personal tinkercad.com account before the class. No previous experience required. Must be able to type. Club will take place live via Google Meet; register online to receive class link. Please contact lindsaya@dekalblibrary.org with questions.

---

Wednesday, October 14, 2020

---

Toddler Storytime

10:30–11:00 a.m.

Registration required.

A link for the story time will be sent to registered participants 30 minutes before the story time starts.

A virtual, interactive storytime, complete with finger plays, action rhymes, stories, and more. This story time is specially targeted for the developmental needs of 2-year-olds. If you have any questions, or trouble accessing the link please contact the Decatur Library youth services department at (404) 370-3030 extension 2011.

Resume Building for Teens Part 1

6:00–7:00 p.m.

Registration required.

Teens create a resume through Google Applied Digital Skills classroom. Each participant will receive a pair of over-the-ear headphones to support digital skills activities. This is a two-part series, so please register for both days, October 14 and 15, 2020. Participants must have or create a gmail account and password. Limited to the first 10 participants. Online registration opens September 30, 2020.

Martial Art Fitness for All Ages

6:00–6:35 p.m.

Join using this link:

<https://qimethods.com/live-stream>

Fitness, Martial Arts and Tai Chi come together in Martial Art Fitness! Families can work together to improve their health, while cultivating discipline and listening skills. The Class is designed for all ages. No equipment is necessary, just an open space and open mind! Funding provided by the Friends of the Dunwoody Library.

Global Read Aloud Book Discussion

6:00–7:00 p.m.

Registration required.

Global Read Aloud-One Book to Connect the World Join DCPL staff virtually as we meet over 6 weeks to discuss Stamped: Racism, Antiracism, and You by Jason Reynolds and Dr. Ibram X. Kendi We will meet virtually every Wednesday at 6:00 e.t. to discuss a section of the book for 6 weeks. After registration, an email will be sent out with link to the meeting and reading schedule. First 15 people registered will get a free copy of Stamped!

Virtual Tutoring with Mind Bubble

6:15–8:15 p.m.

To sign up for Mind Bubble's parent email list and receive the Zoom link for each virtual tutoring session in your inbox, visit <https://mindbubble.org/sign-up/>

Mind Bubble is excited to announce that their virtual tutoring sessions will resume in September, 2020! Sessions are held on Wednesday evenings and Sunday afternoons beginning September 16. Mind Bubble fosters a love of learning by connecting students with community members through free tutoring, workshops, and games. They strive to create a relaxed learning environment where many of life's most important lessons can be learned while having fun. DeKalb County Public Library will provide students in need a Chromebook laptop while supplies last. For more information, contact Gina Jenkins, DeKalb County Public Library, Youth Services Coordinator; 404.508.7190, ext. 2258.

---

Thursday, October 15, 2020

---

Cuéntame un Cuento

The link will be posted at 10:30 a.m. on the day of the program.

Watch an episode from September 17 here.

Una serie de lecturas en español para niños. (Para edades de 4 a 9 años.) El enlace se publicará a las 10:30 a.m. del día del programa. Tell me a story: A series of stories read aloud in Spanish for children ages 4 to 9 years.

Tell Your Story Through World-building

4:00–5:00 p.m.

Registration required.

Ally Wright, Program Assistant at the Georgia Center for the Book, leads a presentation for tweens and teens on how to world-build when writing fiction. These skills can be applied to any type of writing, but we will practice through fantasy and science fiction. Each presentation will end with a prompt to encourage putting these skills into practice.

Resume Building for Teens Part 2

6:00–7:00 p.m.

Registration required.

Teens create a resume through Google Applied Digital Skills classroom. Each participant will receive a pair of over-the-ear headphones to support digital skills activities. This is a two-part series, so please register for both days, October 14 and 15, 2020. Participants must have or create a gmail account and password. Limited to the first 10 participants. Online registration opens September 30, 2020.

---

Friday, October 16, 2020

---

Preschool Storytime

10:30–11:00 a.m.

Registration required.

An energetic and interactive virtual storytime, complete with stories, songs, and more that are perfect for preschoolers. A link for the story time will be sent to registered participants 30 minutes before the story time starts. If you have any questions, or trouble accessing the link please contact the Decatur Library youth services department at (404) 370-3030 extension 2011.

---

Sunday, October 18, 2020

---

Virtual Tutoring with Mind Bubble

2:00–4:00 p.m.

To sign up for Mind Bubble's parent email list and receive the Zoom link for each virtual tutoring session in your inbox, visit <https://mindbubble.org/sign-up/>

Mind Bubble is excited to announce that their virtual tutoring sessions will resume in September, 2020! Sessions are held on Wednesday evenings and Sunday afternoons beginning September 16. Mind Bubble fosters a love of learning by connecting students with community members through free tutoring, workshops, and games. They strive to create a relaxed learning environment where many of life's most important lessons can be learned while having fun. DeKalb County Public Library will provide students in need a Chromebook laptop while supplies last. For more information, contact Gina Jenkins, DeKalb County Public Library, Youth Services Coordinator; 404.508.7190, ext. 2258.

---

Monday, October 19, 2020

---

Baby Time: Building Brains, Building Bonds

Mondays on Facebook

Watch an episode from September 28 here.

Songs, visuals, and movement activities designed to stimulate brain development and social bonding in the very young.

SAT, ACT and Admissions in the Time of COVID

5:00–6:00 p.m.

To register for this information session, click here.

Why students should still consider taking the official ACT and/or SAT during a time when some colleges and universities are going test-optional or test-blind? Representatives with The Princeton Review will discuss the value of taking the SAT or ACT considering the following:

- Scores can still help students earn admission, merit-based financial aid and academic placement.
- With fewer data points for admissions teams to evaluate, scores may provide an important distinguishing factor for acceptance.
- Students can proactively take steps to increase their chances of earning admissions and more!

---

Tuesday, October 20, 2020

---

Baby Story Time

10:30–11:00 a.m.

Registration required.

A link for the story time will be sent to registered participants 30 minutes before the story time starts.

An interactive, virtual baby story time with nursery rhymes, songs, and books that target the developmental needs of infants and crawlers. If you have any questions, or trouble accessing the link please contact the Decatur Library youth services department at (404) 370-3030 extension 2011.

---

Wednesday, October 21, 2020

---

Toddler Storytime

10:30–11:00 a.m.

Registration required.

A link for the story time will be sent to registered participants 30 minutes before the story time starts.

A virtual, interactive storytime, complete with finger plays, action rhymes, stories, and more. This story time is specially targeted for the developmental needs of 2-year-olds. If you have any questions, or trouble accessing the link please contact the Decatur Library youth services department at (404) 370-3030 extension 2011.

Martial Art Fitness for All Ages

6:00–6:35 p.m.

Join using this link:

<https://qimethods.com/live-stream>

Fitness, Martial Arts and Tai Chi come together in Martial Art Fitness! Families can work together to improve their health, while cultivating discipline and listening skills. The Class is designed for all ages. No equipment is necessary, just an open space and open mind! Funding provided by the Friends of the Dunwoody Library.

Global Read Aloud Book Discussion

6:00–7:00 p.m.

Registration required.

Global Read Aloud-One Book to Connect the World Join DCPL staff virtually as we meet over 6 weeks to discuss

Stamped: Racism, Antiracism, and You by Jason Reynolds and Dr. Ibram X. Kendi We will meet virtually every Wednesday at 6:00 e.t. to discuss a section of the book for 6 weeks. After registration, an email will be sent out with link to the meeting and reading schedule. First 15 people registered will get a free copy of Stamped!

Virtual Tutoring with Mind Bubble

6:15–8:15 p.m.

To sign up for Mind Bubble's parent email list and receive the Zoom link for each virtual tutoring session in your inbox, visit <https://mindbubble.org/sign-up/>

Mind Bubble is excited to announce that their virtual tutoring sessions will resume in September, 2020! Sessions are held on Wednesday evenings and Sunday afternoons beginning September 16. Mind Bubble fosters a love of learning by connecting students with community members through free tutoring, workshops, and games. They strive to create a relaxed learning environment where many of life's most important lessons can be learned while having fun. DeKalb County Public Library will provide students in need a Chromebook laptop while supplies last. For more information, contact Gina Jenkins, DeKalb County Public Library, Youth Services Coordinator; 404.508.7190, ext. 2258.

Thursday, October 22, 2020

Turn and Talk

Watch an episode from September 24 here.

Conversations, Books, and Building Brains — A story time for caregivers and their preschoolers.

Friday, October 23, 2020

Preschool Storytime

10:30–11:00 a.m.

Registration required.

An energetic and interactive virtual storytime, complete with stories, songs, and more that are perfect for preschoolers. A link for the story time will be sent to registered participants 30 minutes before the story time starts. If you have any questions, or trouble accessing the link please contact the Decatur Library youth services department at (404) 370-3030 extension 2011.

Saturday, October 24, 2020

SAT Virtual Practice Test

10:00 a.m.–2:00 p.m.

Click here to register.

Take a FREE full-length practice SAT test via The Princeton Review online classroom. Get realistic practice and receive your score immediately pinpointing your strengths and weaknesses. Test sponsored by The Princeton Review.

Sunday, October 25, 2020

Virtual Tutoring with Mind Bubble

2:00–4:00 p.m.

To sign up for Mind Bubble's parent email list and receive the Zoom link for each virtual tutoring session in your inbox, visit <https://mindbubble.org/sign-up/>

Mind Bubble is excited to announce that their virtual tutoring sessions will resume in September, 2020! Sessions are held on Wednesday evenings and Sunday afternoons beginning September 16. Mind Bubble fosters a love of learning by connecting students with community members through free tutoring, workshops, and games. They strive to create a relaxed learning environment where many of life's most important lessons can be learned while having fun. DeKalb County Public Library will provide students in need a Chromebook laptop while supplies last. For more information, contact Gina Jenkins, DeKalb County Public Library, Youth Services Coordinator; 404.508.7190, ext. 2258.

Monday, October 26, 2020

Baby Time: Building Brains, Building Bonds

Mondays on Facebook

Watch an episode from September 28 here.

Songs, visuals, and movement activities designed to stimulate brain development and social bonding in the very young.

Teen Murder Mystery Night

6:00–8:00 p.m.

Registration required.

Join us for a virtual murder mystery evening, where you play the suspects! Join other participants through Google Meet, question suspects and gather clues to unmask the culprit. Registration ends one day before program date. Character information and Google Meet link will be sent to the provided email address by end of day Sunday, October 25. If unable to attend, please cancel registration so that your character can be reassigned to another player.

---

Tuesday, October 27, 2020

---

Baby Story Time

10:30–11:00 a.m.

Registration required.

A link for the story time will be sent to registered participants 30 minutes before the story time starts.

An interactive, virtual baby story time with nursery rhymes, songs, and books that target the developmental needs of infants and crawlers. If you have any questions, or trouble accessing the link please contact the Decatur Library youth services department at (404) 370-3030 extension 2011.

---

Wednesday, October 28, 2020

---

Toddler Storytime

10:30–11:00 a.m.

Registration required.

A link for the story time will be sent to registered participants 30 minutes before the story time starts.

A virtual, interactive storytime, complete with finger plays, action rhymes, stories, and more. This story time is specially targeted for the developmental needs of 2-year-olds. If you have any questions, or trouble accessing the link please contact the Decatur Library youth services department at (404) 370-3030 extension 2011.

Martial Art Fitness for All Ages

6:00–6:35 p.m.

Join using this link:

<https://qimethods.com/live-stream>

Fitness, Martial Arts and Tai Chi come together in Martial Art Fitness! Families can work together to improve their health, while cultivating discipline and listening skills. The Class is designed for all ages. No equipment is necessary, just an open space and open mind! Funding provided by the Friends of the Dunwoody Library.

Global Read Aloud Book Discussion

6:00–7:00 p.m.

Registration required.

Global Read Aloud-One Book to Connect the World Join DCPL staff virtually as we meet over 6 weeks to discuss Stamped: Racism, Antiracism, and You by Jason Reynolds and Dr. Ibram X. Kendi We will meet virtually every Wednesday at 6:00 e.t. to discuss a section of the book for 6 weeks. After registration, an email will be sent out with link to the meeting and reading schedule. First 15 people registered will get a free copy of Stamped!

Virtual Tutoring with Mind Bubble

6:15–8:15 p.m.

To sign up for Mind Bubble's parent email list and receive the Zoom link for each virtual tutoring session in your inbox, visit <https://mindbubble.org/sign-up/>

Mind Bubble is excited to announce that their virtual tutoring sessions will resume in September, 2020! Sessions are held on Wednesday evenings and Sunday afternoons beginning September 16. Mind Bubble fosters a love of learning by connecting students with community members through free tutoring, workshops, and games. They strive to create a relaxed learning environment where many of life's most important lessons can be learned while having fun. DeKalb County Public Library will provide students in need a Chromebook laptop while supplies last. For more information, contact Gina Jenkins, DeKalb County Public Library, Youth Services Coordinator; 404.508.7190, ext. 2258.

Thursday, October 29, 2020

Cuéntame un Cuento

The link will be posted at 10:30 a.m. on the day of the program.

Watch an episode from September 17 here.

Una serie de lecturas en español para niños. (Para edades de 4 a 9 años.) El enlace se publicará a las 10:30 a.m. del día del programa. Tell me a story: A series of stories read aloud in Spanish for children ages 4 to 9 years.

Tell Your Story Through Fan Fiction

4:00–5:00 p.m.

Registration required.

Ally Wright, Program Assistant at the Georgia Center for the Book, leads a presentation for tweens and teens on how to write fan fiction, just in time for Halloween. Dressing up as your favorite character? That's a great first step. Each presentation will end with a prompt to encourage putting these skills into practice.

Tween Graphic Novel Book Club

5:30–6:30 p.m.

Registration required.

Join us for this book club for ages 11 to 14 discussing The Graveyard Book, Vol. 1 by P. Craig Russell. The book is available on hoopla.

Project LIT Teen Book Club

6:00–7:00 p.m.

Registration required.

We're reading and discussing culturally relevant books on topics that influence and affect teens. We will read 1 book in October and 1 in December. October's title: Dear Justyce by Nic Stone. December's title: March: Book One by John Lewis, Andrew Aydin, and Nate Powell. After registration, an email with the virtual meeting room information for the event will be sent. First 20 people registered will receive a free copy of Dear Justyce!

Friday, October 30, 2020

Preschool Storytime

10:30–11:00 a.m.

Registration required.

An energetic and interactive virtual storytime, complete with stories, songs, and more that are perfect for preschoolers. A link for the story time will be sent to registered participants 30 minutes before the story time starts. If you have any questions, or trouble accessing the link please contact the Decatur Library youth services department at (404) 370-3030 extension 2011.