2020 Census Self-Response Weekly Highlights

CENTRAL GEORGIA TEAM

Georgia Early Education Alliance for Ready Students (GEEARS), Community Foundation of Greater Atlanta (CFGa), Voices for Georgia's Children (Voices), and Fair Count put information about the 2020 Census in 19,000 meal packages being offered for pickup at sites across the city of Atlanta, including Atlanta Public Schools and YMCAs. In addition, information about the census will be put in over 2,000 packages being distributed to families across the city as a part of the Mayor's Summer Reading Club, another GEEARS-led initiative.

In addition, GEEARS held a 4-hour workshop where Voices and Partnership Specialist Kristen Nespoli trained approximately 60 Census ambassadors, answered questions and addressed concerns.

NORTHWEST GEORGIA TEAM

Sweetwater Mission and MUST Ministries are holding a combined 10 food pantry events at 10 different locations in Cobb County this week to help families dealing with food insecurity during the COVID-19 pandemic. They are also encouraging participation in the 2020 Census with plans to distribute Census materials to folks in the community.

NORTHEAST GEORGIA TEAM

The City of Stonecrest 2020 Census Complete Count Committee (CCC) hosted a virtual townhall meeting to educate, encourage, and engage the residents of Stonecrest to respond to the Census. City of Stonecrest Mayor Jason Lary and DeKalb County Commissioner Larry Johnson discussed a range of topics including the benefits of ensuring a complete count for the 2020 Census to the attendees at the meeting. Additionally, during the townhall the CCC identified low-responding areas and discussed strategies to help encourage hard-to-count communities in Stonecrest, Georgia, to respond to the 2020 Census. Estimated reach: 54,000

SOUTH GEORGIA TEAM

On May 16th, the Macon-Middle Georgia Pan-Hellenic Council's Census car caravan made an impact on census tract 105. Cars traveled through the lowest responding census tract with sirens, loud speakers and multiple vehicles to remind residents in 4-5 neighborhoods to respond to the Census.

The Savannah Youth Council will have youth members calling friends and family in Savannah to make sure they have completed their 2020 Census. On May 16th they will distribute survival kits including 2020 Census water bottles and toothbrushes from the Chatham County CCC.
